

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

WHEREAS: on July 11, 2015, Loren McDaniel, our reigning Miss Northwest Arkansas, brought the Miss Arkansas crown back to Northwest Arkansas for the first time since 1991, and

WHEREAS: Loren, an Honors Graduate from Van Buren High School and a 2015 graduate from the University of Arkansas, will represent Arkansas in Miss America 2015 in Atlantic City in September, and

WHEREAS: with her platform of Confidently You, Loren is promoting awareness and prevention of Domestic Violence. She has worked with and will continue to work with the Arkansas Coalition Against Domestic Violence with the goal to work with every one of their shelters during her reign as Miss Arkansas, and

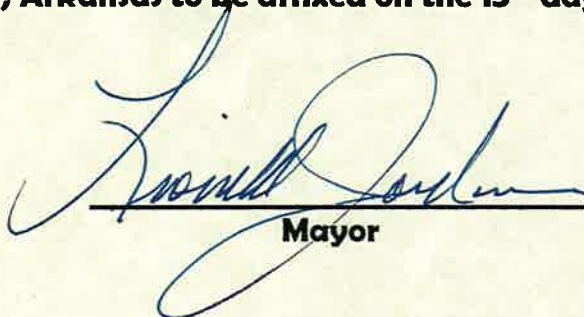

WHEREAS: as well as becoming the 78th Miss Arkansas on July 11 in Hot Springs, Loren also won the Overall Interview Award, the Overall Service Before Self Award and was named the Children's Miracle Network Miracle Maker for her fundraising efforts for CMN and Arkansas Children's Hospital, and

WHEREAS: with her hard work and commitment to others, Loren has represented Northwest Arkansas well and we are proud of her determination, talent and good works,

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim Saturday, August 15, 2015 as

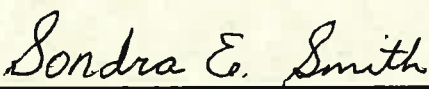

"MISS ARKANSAS, LOREN McDANIEL DAY"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 15th day of August, 2015.
