

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

WHEREAS: when the United States was very young, there was a group of very smart people who had a vision about the future of our country. This group was called the Framers. They wrote the Constitution in 1787 to capture their vision, and

WHEREAS: some of the Framers are very famous. Our first President, George Washington, was a Framers, so was Ben Franklin an important inventor, and also James Madison who later became President.

WHEREAS: the Constitution is the highest law. It belongs to the United States. It belongs to all Americans, and it belongs to you and

WHEREAS: the purpose of the Constitution is to ensure that we establish justice, insure peace, and promote the welfare and liberties for ourselves, our children and our children's children and

WHEREAS: the Framers agreed to make sure our laws and governments were balanced and did not give any one group too much power in order to help protect the people.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim September 17, 2018 as in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

"Constitution Day"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 17th day of September, 2018.
